

Sailing route

Sukošan - Mali Lošinj - Rab - Suškošan

Day 1: Suškošan → Molat island (Zapuntel) - 25 NM Surrounded by lush vegetation and clear waters, Zapuntel offers a peaceful beach and ideal conditions for summer sports as well as an overnight stay in a peaceful bay.

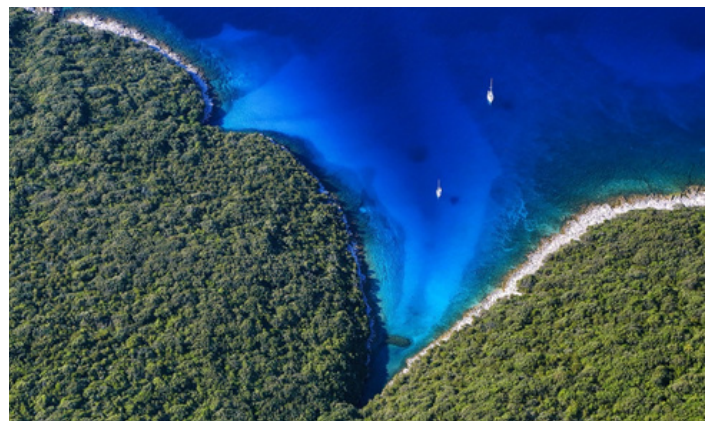

Day 2: Zapuntel → Ilovik → Mali Lošinj - 25 NM Stop and swim at the Flower Island of Ilovik - a peaceful, car-free oasis full of oleanders, palms and fragrant gardens.

Continue on to Mali Lošinj, which is the largest settlement on the Adriatic islands and a renowned health resort with a long tradition as the "Island of Vitality".

Day 3: Mali lošinj → Susak → Unije - 15 NM A visit to the sandy island of Susak - a unique sandy island in the Lošinj archipelago, formed from thick layers of yellow sand on limestone. It is also famous for its colorful traditional women's skirt, the shortest folk costume in Europe.

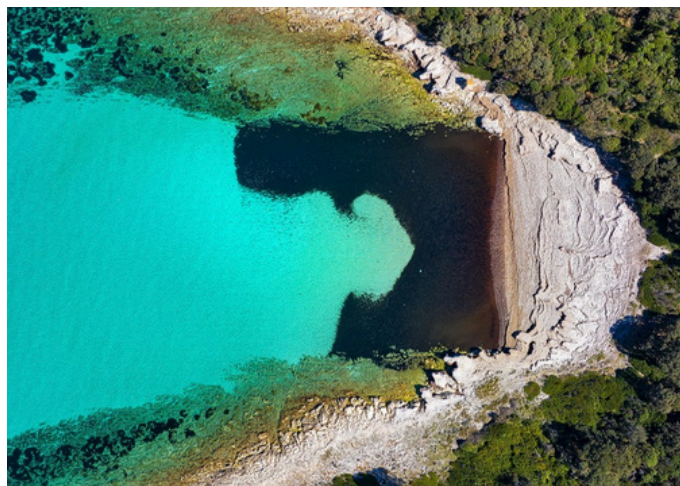

In the afternoon, continue sailing toward the island of Unije.

SUKOŠAN - MALI LOŠINJ - RAB - SUKOŠAN

Day 4: Unije → Rab - 35 NM Rab, known as the “Island of Happiness” is famous for its historic town with four bell towers, numerous sandy beaches and lush vegetation. The old town’s silhouette resembles a sailing ship with four masts (the bell towers).

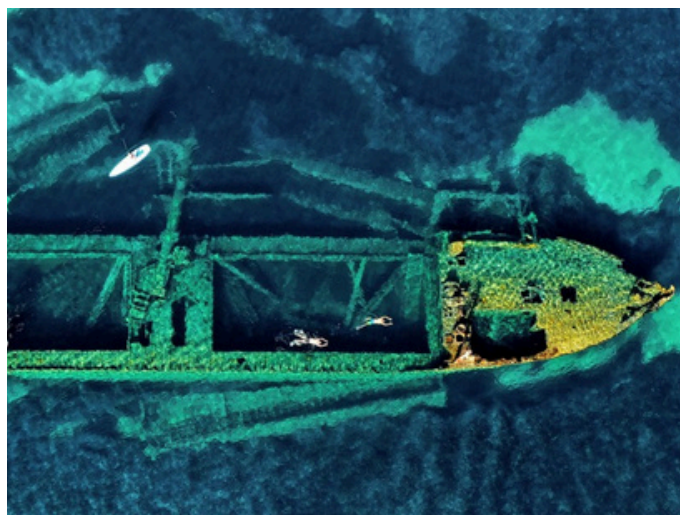

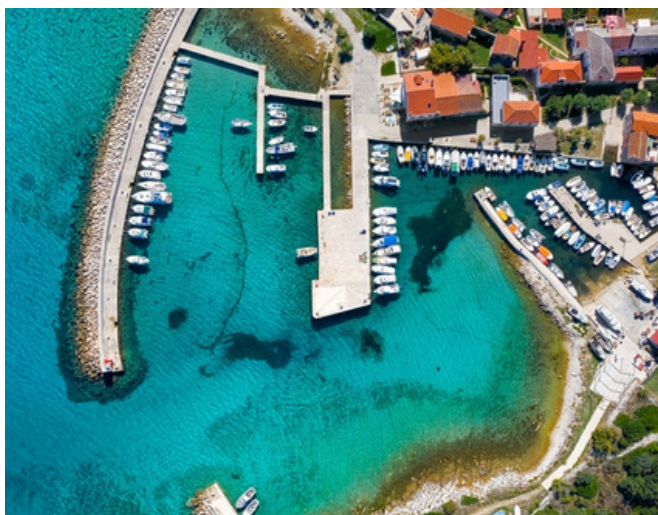

Day 5: Rab → Silba - 20 NM Silba Island is recognizable for its turquoise bays. It is a unique “pedestrian island” in the Zadar archipelago, where cars are banned and cycling is limited in summer to maintain peace.

Day 6: Silba → Veli Rat - 15 NM on the cape of Dugi Otok, not far from the Veli Rat lighthouse, lies the wreck of the Italian cargo ship Michelle. It serves as an artificial reef, attracting various fish and, in some areas, small coral formations. Perfect for snorkeling, diving, and underwater photography, even for beginners

Day 7: Veli Rat → Sukošan - 20 NM swimming and sailing along the Zadar Channel
